DR. AND MRS. CHRISTOPHER TOMPKINS entertained the debutantes of this season and last in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Tompkins, who is one of the most charming young girls out this winter.
The girls were entertained at dinner until 10 o'clock, when the men were invited in for supper.
The Tompkins home was decorated with great branches of holly, bright red flowers and running cedar, with scarlet flowers and ferns banded on the mantels. In the dining-room the table was set with a centerpiece of lovely white flowers and ferns; and the candles were shaded in white and silver. Dr. and Mrs. Tompkins received with their debutante daughter.
Another card party will be given this evening by Dr. and Mrs. Tompkins for Miss Mary Tompkins.
Leaving To-Day.
Miss Etta Tallafiero, who has been the guest of Miss Katherine Hagau on East Franklin Street for the past week, will leave town to-day for her home in Baltimore. Miss Tallafiero has been guest of honor at several very attractive affairs given during her stay in this city.

Miss Elizabeth Jencks, who has been the guest of Miss Belle Willard here, is also returning to Baltimore to-day.
Miss Jencks came to Richmond to attend Miss Willard's formal introduction to society, which took place on Saturday. Miss Jencks is one of the reason's debutantes in Baltimore.
Children's Dance.
A very charming affair of this week will be the children's Christmas dance, given by Miss Ella Binford for her dancing class. The affair will be given this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and all the fashionable girls and boys in town will be present. These dances are annual events and are quite as important to the little people in town as any big function of the winter might be to a debutante. There will be charming favors and some very pretty german figures led by some of the children.
Back From School.
Miss Evelyn Hyman Jackson has returned from Gunston Hall, where she has been a student this season. Miss Hyman returned to the Christmas holidays in Richmond with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson, at 509 West Franklin Street.
Miss Martha Valentine, Miss Sara Oppelheimer and Miss Margaret Miller also returned to Richmond for the winter. They are attending a school near Baltimore.
Recent Announcements.
Mrs. Richard Walke has issued cards for the marriage of her daughter, Diana Talbot, to Rufus Parks Jr., the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening, January 10, at 5:30 o'clock in Christ Church, Norfolk. A reception will follow the ceremony at the residence of the bride's mother, 30 Bute Street, Norfolk.
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Eldon Freeman have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Mary, and John W. Carter Jr. The ceremony will take place on the morning of Friday, December 29, at 11 o'clock, 307 East Main Street. After January 10, Mr. Carter and his bride will make their home at Forest Hill Inn, Forest Hill, going later to Danville, where they will reside.
Another engagement recently announced of much interest in this city, is that of Miss Dorothy Kline and Lieutenant H. E. Kimmel, United States Navy. Both belong to naval families of much prominence. No date has been set for the wedding.
Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer, 317 West Grace Street. Four tables were engaged and the highest score was made by Mrs. Robins and Mr. Cannon.
Mrs. W. R. Robins will be hostess of the club next week on Wednesday evening in the Shirley, corner Third and Streets. The club meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, December 27, instead of Monday, as Christmas falls on that date.

been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E.
Stuart Blanton, in Newport News, has returned to Richmond.
Miss Mable O'Ferrall, who has been quite sick at the Memorial Hospital in this city, is now improving.
Mr. and Mrs. John D. Clotier will shortly go to Staunton, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Hogshead.
Staley—Chandler.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Spencer, N. C., December 13.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Chandler was the scene of a pretty wedding to-night, when Miss Lillie Chandler became the bride of Robert L. Staley.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
F. J. Mallott, rector of St. Luke's Church, Salisbury. The little pages were Masters Albert and Edwin Chandler. The groomsmen were James W.
Payne and C. H. Chandler, a brother of the bride. Following these were the matrons of honor, Mrs. Charles Chandler, and Mrs. Price Surratt. Next came Miss Edie Hartman, and following her came the little flower girl, Miss Frances Chandler. Then entered the maid of honor, Miss Helen Brockett, of High Point. Following her came the bride with her brother, J.
W. Chandler, of High Point, who gave her away. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, P. P.
Surratt, who entered from a side door.
The house had been beautifully decorated for the occasion in ferns, potted plants and holly. Preceding the wedding a reception was given the bride last night. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a bridal trip to Northern cities, and will reside in Salisbury after their return January 1.

Hiller—Eichelbaum.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., December 10.—A wedding of much interest to many persons in the city took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Eichel-baum, when Miss Rebecca Don was married to Abram Hiller. The principals are both natives of Russia. A number of persons from a distance witnessed the nuptials, among these being Mr. and Mrs. M. Cohen, of New York; Mrs. I. Shapiro, of Richmond.
The bride was given away by Mr. and Mrs. Eichelbaum, and her only attendant was Mrs. Shapiro.
Marriage Announcement.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Brown Station, N. Y., December 13.— Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Parrish announce the marriage of their daughter, Fannie Thomasson, to James Washington Walker, of Richmond, on December 13.

CHILD LABOR COMMITTEE ORGANIZED BY LEAGUE
A meeting at which a child labor committee was organized was held yesterday afternoon at the League headquarters, 809 East Broad Street.
Dr. Roy K. Flannagan was appointed chairman and Mrs. A. M. Tyler, secretary.
Dr. McKelway, of the national child labor committee, was present and read sections from the uniform child labor law adopted in many of the States. In the course of his remarks he made the statement that in regard to capital invested in manufactures, Virginia led all the Southern States.
This was, of course, in connection with the employment of child labor.
A legislative committee appointed by the chair included Mrs. B. B. Munford, Edwin P. Cox and Dr. J. T. Mastin. This committee will report at a meeting to be held Wednesday, December 27, at 4 o'clock.
Members of the child labor committee present were: Dr. J. T. Mastin, Mrs. B. B. Munford, Rev. Walter Russell Bowie, Dr. McKelway, Edwin P.
Cox, Mrs. Kate Pleasant Minor, Miss Mary Johnston, Miss Nannie Minor, Miss Elizabeth Cooke. On motion of Dr. Mastin the name of Edmund C.
Davison was added to the committee.

One Result of Remarkable Revival in Progress at Covington.

Covington, Va., December 19.—For the past thirty-five days this town has been in the midst of one of the greatest revival meetings ever held in this part of the country. Rev.
George C. Cates, of Louisville, Ky., is the leader, and he is assisted by all the ministers of the town. More than 700 persons had been converted up to last night. For the past two weeks the conversions were anywhere from twenty-five to fifty people each night.
Where one used to hear the boys and men whistling "ragtime" tunes, it is now the tune of some sacred hymn.
The moving picture shows have about been put out of business for want of patronage. The falling off of the press company is very noticeable.

The meetings are being held in the Grandview M. E. Church, which has a seating capacity of about 1,000 persons, and this church has been packed every night to standing room and people turned away. Overflow meetings have been held in one of the other churches.
Mr. Cates, the leader in this remarkable religious meeting, came here from Hinton, W. Va., where he had just closed a similar meeting and over 700 persons had been converted.

NEW RATES HELP
VIRGINIA TOWNS

Several Orders of Interest Issued by Interstate Commerce Commission.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, D. C., December 19.— The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day issued several orders of interest to railroads and manufacturing concerns in the South. The application of the Virginia Railway Company was granted to establish rates on that road for lumber shipments from all stations along the line, so that such rates will be the same as those currently in effect on the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore and Ohio, and other roads. This will give Christiansburg, Altavista and other towns in Southwest Virginia very much better rates than they now enjoy.
The application of the Atlantic Coast Line, the Norfolk and Western and other roads to establish freight rates from points in Virginia, the two Carolinas and Mississippi Valley territory to stations on the Boston and Albany Railroad, via Richmond and the Potomac yards, and to make these rates the same as are now in effect between the same points via other routes, without a violation of the interstate rates, was also granted. The effect of this order will be to send much more freight through Richmond than has been going via that city heretofore.
The Southern Railway asked for and obtained better shipping rates on china crockery, cottons and other such commodities from Marysville, Tenn., to Richmond and other Virginia cities, as Lawrence and James H. Nuckols were united in marriage by W. P. Reeves on December 14. Following the ceremony the couple went to the home of the groom's father, Hardee Nuckols, near Rockville, where a reception was tendered.

Overstreet—Irving.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., December 19.—Sunday evening at the parsonage of Methodist Church, the pastor, Rev. W. A. Cooper, officiating, Miss Iva May Irving was married to Lawrence F. Overstreet. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Irving. After the marriage a supper was served the bride party at the groom's home in Pierce Street.
